OPEN THE BOOK

A group of us are taking the Bible Society's "Open the Book" into a local school and are sharing bible stories with the children there. It is an interactive scheme with dressing up, both adults and children. It's great fun. Feel free to join us if you are passionate about sharing the Bible with the young. There is no age limit and many elderly people are enjoying the experience up and down the country. We also need people who are skilled at sewing simple biblical costumes. Come and join us. It will be good to have you on board.

See Lynn King for further details.

Sumdie

Many years ago I was introduced to Sumdie (sometimes spelt as Somebody). The story of Sumdie, like many which are told and retold over the years, has varied but the latest version I found goes something like this:

This is a little story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody.

There was once an important job to be done and, though it was Everybody's job to do it, Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it.

Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it.

Somebody got angry about that because it was Everybody's job.

Everybody thought that Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it.

It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done!

Ok, so why this story now? Well November 1st marks All Saints Day, the day when we are reminded that all followers of Christ are, in one sense, called to be saints. And shortly thereafter we celebrate our Chapel Anniversary, the time when we recalled those who over the years have served the church, often sacrificially, and brought us to the place we are at, while looking forward in faith to the future. So hopefully, by telling the story now, you will have time to think of your response in the light of these important events at the end of the month!

In a recent meeting Ann Woodhouse indicated that, due to taking on duties of Church Steward while still holding the role of Circuit Steward, she felt that she had to lay-down her role as leader of the Fundraising group (which I like to think of as more of a fundraising and social arrangements group!).

Do you know someone who could take on this role? Could YOU take on this task? We have a programme arranged up to the end of March 2016 but nothing beyond, so we need to be looking to fill this gap quite quickly.

What skills are needed?

- someone who can inspire a group to organise and run activities,
- someone who can delegate jobs to others and not try to do it all themselves,
- someone who can encourage new people to get involved,
- someone who has the vision to, maybe, try something new, and finally
- somebody who has a heart for the future mission of the church and the compassion to see the value of fundraising, for both the church and other good causes, as a means of enhancing the social life of this church and engaging with those in the community around us (I.e. seeing events as missional opportunities).

Any offers? Any suggestions? The future of your church depends on you to help the church resolve this issue and find the right person.

Blessings, Arthur

The Smiles Coffee Morning raised £293. This money will go towards the charities 'Sack of Smiles Project'. This provides some very poor youngster in Romania with a sack full of toys, clothing and treats for Christmas (very similar to a shoebox). Thank you to everyone for all the support given.

Also £62.75 has been collected over the past year in the Smiles jar for loose change in the church foyer. Thank you again.

Lastly, don't forget I still collect books (any kind, any condition), DVD's and CD's. There is a yellow box in the foyer or I can arrange collection.
